

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia

ATLANTA, September 25, 2026

The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order:

A26A2148. HILL et al v. KITTELY POINT HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION, INC. et al

Shalda Hill, pro se, has filed a number of motions in this Court regarding allegedly missing portions of the appellate record. In light of the breadth of materials allegedly omitted, the indeterminate amount of time it will take to prepare and transmit these materials to this Court, and the constitutional time restraints governing this Court's disposition of appeals, this case must be remanded to the Superior Court of Gwinnett County until preparation of the appellate record is completed. When the entire appellate record is prepared, the matter may then be transmitted to and re-docketed with the Court of Appeals. Accordingly, this case is REMANDED, and Appellant's motion to supplement the record and separate pro se motion are DENIED as moot.
